

CROWN OF THE OHIO

Historic River Atlas - Citation Guide

Final edition | October 6, 2026

Suggested citation for the complete atlas

Calhoun, T.P., ed. Crown of the Ohio: Historic River Atlas - River Miles 23-53. River Hills Kilns Mills Institute, October 6, 2026. 24 pp. <https://riverhillskilnsmills.com/atlas>

Suggested citation for an individual chart

Calhoun, T.P., ed. "Chart 13: East Liverpool, Chester, Newell." In Crown of the Ohio: Historic River Atlas - River Miles 23-53, pp. 16-17. River Hills Kilns Mills Institute, October 6, 2026. <https://riverhillskilnsmills.com/atlas>

Replace the chart number, title, and atlas page range with those of the chart used. The attribution at the foot of each page gives its original atlas page number; individual PDFs also have their own local pagination.

Original maps and modern editorial work

The historical map sheets are Army Corps survey maps from 1911-14, revised 1930. This atlas compilation, cover, chart overviews, reading guides, and navigation were researched, conceived, directed, and edited by T.P. Calhoun. If citing the historical sheet itself, also use the original chart title, issuing body, date, and repository or source details printed on that sheet.

Online references

Use the stable atlas URL above. Add an access date if your required citation style calls for one. For quotations or cropped details, identify the chart and the atlas page; distinguish original map information from modern editorial notes.

Free - Please Share

Read the atlas and find the final individual-chart PDFs at:
<https://riverhillskilnsmills.com/atlas>